Read more about the Schools of Mass Destruction here. Location where we will meet up at 1 p.m. will be announced later (and will depend on the university's COVID restrictions) - in January, you can email <nukeresister@igc.org>.

California

Lawrence Livermore National Lab, Livermore, 8am

Tri-Valley CAREs is celebrating the official "Entry Into Force" on January 22, 2021 of the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons, or TPNW. We invite you to celebrate this major milestone with us, either from your own home or more publicly. We will host a banner-holding event on Friday, January 22, 2021 at 8 am at the Livermore nuclear weapons Laboratory "West Gate" on Vasco Road in Livermore. We ask prospective participants to RSVP (please do not just show up) in order to have a sufficient number of signs and 6-foot "Nuclear Weapons are Illegal" banners.

Additionally we ask you to RSVP so that all participants can be socially distanced, mask required. Contact Tri-Valley CARE's Executive Director Marylia Kelley by email at marylia@earthlink.net to ask questions or RSVP. Be sure to include your complete contact information.

California continued Lockheed Martin, 1111 Lockheed Martin Way, Sunnyvale, CA , 9-10 am

Assemble at 9 am near the gates to this Lockheed Martin facility where missiles that deliver nuclear weapons are designed and possibly manufactured. Lockheed Martin Way is called West Java Drive on the other side of N. Mathilda. Park in nearby lot on West Java Drive and walk across N. Mathilda to approach the gates. This demo is happening earlier than usual so after 10 am attendees can drive to Palo Alto for another demo which starts at 12 noon and is described below.

Palo Alto, corner of El Camino Real and Embarcadero, from 12 to 1:30 pm

The Peninsula/Palo Alto branch of WILPF demonstrates EVERY Friday at noon at the corner of El Camino Real and Embarcadero, outside the Town and Country Village shopping mall. This is the author of this guide's home branch. We have banners and some signs for you to hold up to show the thousands of cars that pass this very busy intersection during lunchtime. You can bring your own sign too. We are inviting many other peace-loving groups (e.g. the Catholic Workers who demonstrate at Lockheed Martin, see above) to join us. More information can be sought from the organizer Judy Adams at wilpf.peninsula.paloalto@gmail.com .
